Innovative Computer Courses

Innovative Computer Courses (ICC) is licensed by the Massachusetts' Department of Education. Located in Salem, it is a company that specializes in hands-on training in a wide variety of computer programs. ICC is dedicated to training individuals to develop the skills and confidence necessary to be competitive in today's job market. ICC boasts a 100% job placement rate and a 120% salary retainment rate for those re-entering the work force.

History of ICC

ICC was founded by Dennis Liberge and Carolann George in 1997. They became the first licensee of The Academy of Learning and the only company of its kind in the United States. ICC now accommodates more than 150 students a year out of its offices in the Enterprise Center in Salem, MA.

ICC's Mission

Respond to the dynamics of the ever-changing job market with the most relevant, up-to-date solutions for its clients. With that in mind, ICC demonstrates a constant commitment to student success and employability. Also, to maintain a visible and meaningful partnership with the communities is vital for ICC in order to accomplish its student goals.

What ICC Offers

ICC offers to its students a unique approach to learning, shifting away from traditional lecture formats to an on-site, facilitated, learning-by-doing method. Students can choose from individual certificate courses and vocational diploma programs. Offering people a chance to learn at their own pace, ICC is an un-intimidating environment. The programs are also extremely flexible to accommodate busy schedules. Diploma programs include: Administrative Assistant, Basic Business Skills, Call Center Operator, Clerical Assistant, Computerized Accounting, Executive Assistant, and Medical Office Assistant.
